Ranger on Target—This is a photograph of the lunar surface taken by the Ranger 7 spacecraft prior to its impact on the moon July 31st. The area shown is about one and two-thirds miles on a side. The smallest craters are about 30 feet in diameter and 10 feet deep. Some of the large craters are about 300 feet in diameter.

Are the Winners—Roger Craig leaped on a group of teammates surrounding the pitcher Bob Gibson moments after the last out in the seventh World Series game won by the Redbirds over the Yankees, 7-5, in St. Louis.

I'm the Greatest—Cassius Clay whooped it up with his handlers after he won the world heavyweight title in Miami Beach in February. He was credited with a technical knockout of Sonny Liston when Liston failed to answer the bell for the seventh round.

Alaskan Quake—A whole line of cars rested about 20 feet below street level on a main thoroughfare in Anchorage the day following the disastrous earthquake on March 27.

SENIOR TRIP

CRAGUN'S RESORT ON PINE BEACH

Senior students left Thursday, May 20 for Cragun's Resort in northern Minnesota. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Chamley, and Mr. and Mrs. Franchere.

Thursday night was spent at Kay's Motel in St. Cloud. The weekend was cloudy, and wet--in and outside the cabins. Nevertheless, the seniors showed their unquenchable good spirits. The students enjoyed fishing, dancing, eating, boating, swimming, horseback riding, and practical joking.

Several students attended church in Wilmar Sunday morning. The students will remember their long after separation by graduation.

"But I can't swim!" Danny threatens to throw Betty in.

Terry, Gordy, Barb, Glenn, and the abominable snowman relax in the lounge.

"Catch me if you can."

"What are you two doing back there? Loafing?"

Mr. Hortness is shown presenting Gwen, our loyal secretary the past twelve years, with a loving cup at the party given for her by the faculty.

Educational development in school is enriched by released time activities at various churches in the community.

Decorations brightened the halls of AHS during the Christmas season.

Hard working members of the senior class participated in many activities to raise money for their skip day. One of the many projects was picking corn left behind by farmer's corn pickers. Students are shown on a corn pile at the Ray Madison farm.

Senior students return from an enjoyable skip day.

The Lettermen's Club of AHS sponsored a game between the Shooting Stars, an all-girl team, and athletes of the community to raise money for their trip to the state basketball tournaments.

Bombing around on weekends is a favorite sport of many students.
